AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made on the 6th of May, 1997 between the Embassy of the Government of India in Washington, D.C. (hereafter referred to as "the Embassy") and the law firm of The Washington Group (hereafter referred to as "the Firm").

The parties have agreed as follows:

1. The maintenance and continued growth of understanding and cooperation between India and the United States largely is dependent upon the projection of a fair and accurate image of India's vast economic resources, increasing business opportunities for American firms, excellent tourist attractions and dynamic modern social structure. In that regard, it is important that key decision-makers and opinion-makers in the United States be properly informed about India's important economic achievements and future business potential.
2. The ability of key decision-makers and opinion-makers in the United States to properly appreciate India's economic achievements also requires these decision-makers and opinion-makers have a detailed, correct and balanced understanding of various political issues in India today, including human rights matters, nuclear nonproliferation matters and the current state of affairs in various regions of India.
3. To fulfill these important objectives the Firm shall conduct meetings with the Members and staff of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and render assistance for meetings with key officials in selected departments and agencies of the Executive Branch or independent Commissions.
4. The Firm shall advise and assist the Embassy in dealing with legislation pending in the Congress which could have an adverse impact on the economic, political or diplomatic relationships between India and the United States.
5. The Firm also shall assist the Embassy in promoting greater appreciation and recognition in the United States of India's emerging role as a friend and economic partner of the United States. In that regard, the Firm shall assist the Embassy in encouraging United States businesses to make foreign investments in India.
6. The Firm shall provide written reports to the Ambassador and the DCM of the Embassy of India in Washington on a biweekly basis, or more frequently when required, and meet with relevant Embassy officials on a regular basis to discuss the Firm's activities on behalf of the Embassy.
7. As compensation for these services, the Firm shall receive a fee from the Embassy, at a monthly rate of $ 25,000, payable at the end of the corresponding month, which shall include all expenses.

8. This agreement shall take effect from May 6, 1997 and shall continue through December 31, 1997. In the event David Springer should leave the Firm for any reason during this period, the Embassy shall have the option of canceling the agreement with effect from the date of his departure from the Firm.

9. The Firm shall carry out all of its activities within the framework of this agreement under the direction and supervision of the Embassy. The Embassy agrees to coordinate with the Firm the activities of any other lobbying or public relations companies the Embassy has retained or may choose to retain during the term of this agreement.

10. The Firm shall safeguard and protect as confidential any political, military, economic or other sensitive information provided the Firm in confidence by the Embassy and shall return any such information upon request by the Embassy and shall not retain a copy of any such information in any form.

11. The Firm affirms that it does not represent any client whose interests are in conflict with or hostile to the interests or concerns of the Government of India. The Firm shall always remain cognizant of the interests and concerns of its client and shall not undertake any representation of any client whose interests may be hostile to or in conflict with the Embassy without prior consultations with relevant officials of the Embassy. If the Firm fails to honor its obligations in this regard, this Agreement is subject to termination at the discretion of the Embassy. No notice period will be required for termination and payment will be made on a pro rata basis only up to the date on which the letter terminating the contract on the above ground is issued by the Embassy. Further, in case of any breach of Agreement by the Firm, the Embassy shall also be entitled to suitable compensation or other legal remedies including the right to restrain the Firm from rendering continued assistance to and representing its other clients whose interests are in conflict with or hostile to the interests or concerns of the Government of India.

12. Any difference arising from this Agreement shall be resolved through mutual consultations between the Parties subject to the laws of the United States of America which shall govern any interpretation or application of the Agreement.

AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made on the 13th day of September, 1994 between The China External Trade Development Council (hereinafter referred to as "CETRA") and the law firm of Raffaelli, Spees, Springer & Smith (hereinafter referred to as "the Firm").

The parties have agreed as follows:

1. CETRA agrees to retain the services of the Firm for a period of one year.
2. The Firm shall assist CETRA on matters involving international trade before the Congress of the United States and the Executive Branch of the United States Government.
3. CETRA agrees to pay the Firm a retainer of $6,250 a month in 12 monthly installments for a total of $75,000. The first month's payment shall be due and payable at the time this agreement is signed and each subsequent payment shall be due 30 days after the previous payment was due.
4. CETRA agrees to pay the Firm for the successful completion of assigned additional special projects mutually agreed not to exceed $65,000 during the contract period.
5. The Firm shall provide CETRA such written reports as required by CETRA in fulfillment of the above goals. Any such reports shall be considered confidential in nature, not for distribution to third parties without the express written consent of both the Firm and CERTA.

6. The agreement shall take effect August 1, 1994 and shall continue through July 31, 1995. At the end of this agreement CERTA shall review the performance of the Firm and shall decide whether to continue the relationship with the Firm or to terminate the relationship with the Firm. Such termination shall be by written notice to the Firm. In the event CERTA does not send a written notice of termination, both parties will negotiate a new agreement for the services of the Firm for a minimum of one year. Furthermore it is agreed that the Firm shall be able to propose terms of compensation more favorable than those contained in this agreement.
